TEEN LIBRARY PROGRAMS

COMMUNITY SERVICE FOR TEENS West Islip Teen residents only.

IMPACT PROJECTS (ZOOM)
Thursday, July 21 @ 7pm WIYA 101
Receive one hour of community service by attending this virtual talk on how to stand out during the college application process. As the importance of the SAT and ACT wanes in a student's overall college application "package," what they've done outside the classroom takes on added significance. But joining more clubs and sports teams is not the ideal way to bolster your extracurricular resumé. College counselor and President of Crimson Coaching™, Dr. P. (Dominique Padurano, Ph.D.) will share her knowledge on this topic.

KINDNESS IS CONTAGIOUS (IN-PERSON)
Thursday, August 11 @ 6:30pm WIYA 102
Together we will watch a short TED Talk video on how kindness is contagious. Then we'll make kindness rocks to give to your friends and family or spread among the community. Receive a certificate of completion for 1 hour of community service.

MOVIE REVIEW - FOR WEST ISLIP LIBRARY CARDHOLDERS ONLY.
Earn 2 hours of community service by completing a movie review from our two streaming services, Hoopla or Kanopy. Watch a film from the 20th Century rated G, PG, or PG-13 and fill out our online form to complete the review. After we examine and approve your review, we will notify you regarding your certificate. You may complete 1 review per month. Please email the library at registration@westisliplibrary.org for more details.

TEENS TEACH
Would you like to make an instructional video on a topic our library community would like to learn? Use your skills and knowledge to teach topics such as chess, art, technology and more. Earn 2 hours of community service and email us at registration@westisliplibrary.org for more information.

REVIEW WHAT'S NEW
Check out one of our new books in the teen section, read it, and write a one page review on whether or not you would recommend this title to another person. Before you read and write your review, fill out our application and hand it in to our librarians at the Adult Reference Desk for approval of your book choice. Earn 2 hours of community service after you hand your review in.
